

The "MarchmanStrength.com" Refund Policy is in place to protect our integrity, as well as the moral and hard working athletes of our Athletes.

The Refund Policy states a few policies that we will refund you only if you give our programs fair effort.

If you follow the program you purchase in its entirety, with documentation (e.g.: video file documentation, a daily workout log or journal), and do not see the desired results we will then happily refund you.

Documentation may include:

- Questions sent periodically to coaches
- Video of workouts    Workout Logs filled out.
- A proven effort to get better (video documentation of lifting, workout/diet journal, and customer service questions asked to our support staff at GoEliteSC@Gmail.com)

Our "No Questions Asked" Guarantee is valid and binding under the assumption you know and have abided by our refund policy from the moment of your purchase to that of your refund request.

*A proven effort to get better- simply any proof of an attempt to use the purchased program in its entirety.

This refund policy states that you must own, and use a program, for a minimum of 21 days before a refund    will be considered by our staff.

Refunds will NOT be given to:

- Anyone who wants their money back for reasons outside of not reaching desired results (***)Unless health reasons or failed physical have occurred (documentation of said failed physical must be provided)

- Anyone who attempts to refund upon purchase (within 21 days)

- Anyone who has no proof of effort, or use of the program.

- Anyone who is caught pirating or sharing a program

- Anyone requesting a refund without a receipt or proof of purchase

- Any other reasons shall be reviewed within a 7 day period where Full/Partial/No Refund may be awarded (this decision is rendered by the account manager and customer support team, NOT the content provider and creator)
